Whitham Jones Legal Services Limited an independent UK Forensic sampler/collector network, with over 100 mobile skilled staff nationwide and 6 clinics. Fully trained staff attend appointments on your behalf to take professional samples which adhere to standards of clinical excellence. We specifically recruit experienced NHS medical professionals and former Police/Military officers. Our staff are trained to take a wide range of samples including bloods, hair samples, DNA, urine etc. We currently work with ten of the thirteen Ministry of Justice accredited DNA Laboratories in the UK, numerous Drug & Alcohol Laboratories, as well as working with the authorities in Poland, Canada, United States, United Arab Emirates, Jamaica and Australia. Our staff are prepared to attend any venue, home address, workplace, hospital, prisons, secure units etc, in order to complete the required appointment. Our staff are also trained to take samples from the deceased if required. Three of the contracts we currently hold require this service. To name a few, we are currently utilised by The Home Office, HM Court Service, UK Immigration Service, HM Prison Service.
