

7b Bayham Street
NW1 0EY
United Kingdom

Telephone: 0207 388 1658
Fax: 0207 387 0608

JFH Law is a progressive and established law firm based in the heart of Camden. Founded in 2010 by barrister, Julia Furley, and solicitor, John Howey, JFH Law were one of the first 'Legal Disciplinary Partnerships' to be formed in the UK. Through a collaboration of the solicitors' profession and independent bar, JFH Law boasts an impressive team of some of London's brightest legal minds. The lawyers at JFH Law have collectively more than 40 years' experience in providing expert legal advice and innovative solutions to businesses and individuals alike. Our team are committed to achieving excellent results for our clients and strive to provide the highest level of client care and satisfaction. The team at JFH Law advise individuals and professionals, as well as businesses of all sizes, from sole traders and entrepreneurs to national limited companies. Our expert lawyers have built a reputation for dedication, integrity, and tenacious advocacy. JFH Law maintains an active social media presence providing a regular and respected commentary on business and professional forums. JFH law works in conjunction with our crime team at JFH Crime, specialists in white collar, fraud allegations and extradition work.