The world of law can seem a complicated and intimidating place at times. But we can help. For over 75 years our solicitors have been working with the local community and are here to help you. We have the expertise in many different areas and are fully qualified and accredited family lawyers, conveyancing experts and business lawyers. We breakdown the jargon, just easy to understand legal advice. We talk you through your documents to make sure you understand everything. Legal aid is available in certain circumstances for family and child care matters. You will get everything you'd expect from a leading solicitors firm and a little more with Hawley & Rodgers. Established in 1939, we have the experience and expertise needed to get the right results. We will give you a voice and represent you to the best of our abilities. Our family lawyers have expertise in all matters including child care, divorce and financial matters, domestic violence, powers of attorney, wills and probate. We can also help you with personal and business disputes, personal injury claims, buying and selling a house and commercial law and conveyancing. <http://hawleyandrodgers.com/family-law>
