Our Criminal Defence Solicitors have an excellent track record successfully defending people facing criminal charges in High Court, Sheriff Court and the Court of Appeal. We are registered to provide Legal Aid. If you are not entitled to Legal Aid our solicitors are available to help on a fixed fee basis so you know where you stand in terms of cost. We will maximise your chances of achieving the best result possible. If you've been summoned to court on a single or series of charges, you may be eager to seek legal advice and defence representation. Long-established across Central Scotland and specialising in all aspects of criminal law, Paterson Bell Solicitors provide confidential and impartial advice to private and legal aid funded clients. You'll benefit from quick and comprehensive telephone assistance throughout your case, and the experience of dedicated long-serving solicitors and legal professionals. For a criminal defence lawyer in Kirkcaldy, call Paterson Bell Solicitors on 01592 646600 or contact us online and we'll call you back. Our expert Criminal Defence Solicitors provide legal representation across Scotland.
