PELS Solicitors provides expert advice in all aspects of Employment law, Wills, Powers of Attorney, Divorce, Child Contact and probate. We can also guide you on all Family related issues such as Divorce and Child Contact. In addition to this, we also provide assistance with Landlord & Tenant, Construction Disputes and Health & Safety matters. We aim to provide an excellent service to all clients and above all, without using legal terms which may be confusing to clients. We pride ourselves on the quality of our advice and our wealth of knowledge. We have experts on hand to give you affordable legal advice and representation at Court or in the Employment Tribunal. We are confident that our services provide value for your money and that you will not obtain a competitive quote in comparison to our quote. Please contact us for an estimate of fees in relation to your issue. We do not offer any No Win No Fee Services. We operate a 24 hour helpline for Employers in relation to any HR issues, disciplinary hearings and related areas of employment law. This is subject to terms and conditions of our firm. The Head of our Employment department represents clients at all Employment Tribunal hearings. Our personal success rate is 99%. This means that we have either won outright at Tribunal or have successfully applied for the case to be struck out. We have a Multi Award Winning Team of Solicitors to deal with your queries. We have appeared on the the BBC Breakfast Show with Charlie Stayt and Naga. Team members have also appeared on the BBC Asian Network, Nihal show as the Expert Legal Advisor. In addition to this, our team has won awards for client services, best new business and outstanding services and for commitment to the legal sector. Legal services are available to clients in
